

Unit 3 - Using Social Media in Business

Understanding Demographics

How to achieve a high grade

Distinction:

You will produce a comprehensive, well-balanced evaluation of how a business uses social media, making realistic and well-explained business-related observations on the benefits and disadvantages, while considering their target customers or audience. You will provide real-life, relevant examples of how businesses have used social media effectively and how some businesses have not managed the risks involved effectively. You must articulate your arguments fluently and your views concisely, providing an evaluation that makes reasoned, valid judgements. The evidence will demonstrate high-quality written/oral communication through the use of accurate and fluent technical vocabulary, to support a well-structured and considered response that clearly connects chains of reasoning.

What do we mean by 'Demographics'

Demographics are statistics that describe populations and their characteristics.

- Age
- Gender
- Education
- Nationality
- Ethnicity
- Religion
- Income

Demographics

Why is analysis of demographics important when developing a social media campaign?

It is important to understand your audience in terms of:

- The best social media platform to use
- The type of content your audience engages with (e.g. video content, humour, type of images, text, types of link to other content)

Activity 2 – Audience profile for social media sites (target audience)

It is important that businesses understand the audience profile of a particular social media site before they decide which ones to use. Things to consider are age group, gender, geographical location, etc. Spend some time reviewing statistics on social media usage and the audience profiles some social media sites. Use the websites below to help you with this, or find others yourself. Discuss your findings in the table below and include statistics and charts.
